“ Robert was always so rude and selfish. i am so glad that she died! it is very unfortunate that i have to call the b.... family. Time to enjoy my life!

She died teaching her kids and grandkids to be selfish, and destroyed any relationship that her son's had. I know that Robert has always not been really friendly, she told me that I am not family and still does and then ask when I am going to die. She taught her son , Jeff, to treat me bad and ask the same questions, when am I going to die. Jeffrey thought Joe to do it too. Jeffrey learned from Robert Soule, before she died, how to break the law and get away with it. This is one person I will never forget. I am glad that she is gone, I can be happy.

“ What a sweet spirit and heaven was made a little sweeter when she entered. She definitely loved her Lord and Savior as well as her church. May her family be blessed and remember all the memories that were made during her lifetime.
May they weep little and ultimately meet her again.

“ Roberta and I share Grandchildren. We had Some good times. She was a loving and compassionate woman. We were spending time with babies, I would make snakes out of play dough and she would make trains. Very talented with arts and crafts. I enjoyed what times we did get to chat, at stores or her house. I never heard her speak ill of anyone or about anything. Peace and blessings to her loved ones. As always Nancy “ Remembering my dear sister, Roberta. My childhood best friend, playmate and role model. She put herself through nursing school, raised a beautiful family that keeps multiplying in wonderful ways and always trusted her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She will be greatly missed.

“ We grew up at East Arlington Baptist with the rest of the cousins. Roberta was always a blessing, full of fun and faithful to our Lord. Dave was her cousin and we enjoyed the family get togethers. We do send our love and sympathy to Jerry and the family. May our Lord grant you to peace that only HE can give. Hugs! Dave and Carol Holland

“ She was much more than just your average grandma. She was a quiet, happy, humming machine. She helped to teach and raise so many of us grandchildren, showing us what true kindness and love was. I will never forget the days spent running around their house playing and laughing, the love that was shown and spread to the whole family, or the woman that she was. We all will continue to hold a piece of her in us, forever.
