

Robert J. Johnson

October 6, 1928 - February 28, 2005

Robert J. Johnson passed away Monday, February 28, 2005 at South Haven Nursing and Rehabilitation Community. Robert was born October 6, 1928 at home in Columbia Township, the son of Osa and Arlene (Williams) Johnson and was a long-time resident of the Jeptha Lake area. He was employed by Ellingsworth in Paw Paw for many years, was Bloomingdale Chief of Police during the 60's and early 70's and over the years owned a septic tank business and a handyman service. Robert served in the US Army and the Michigan National Guard. He is survived by his wife Helen, whom he married May 12, 1951; 3 children, Bruce (Cheryl) Johnson and Diana (Dennis) Allen, both of Grand Junction, Roberta (John) Mitchell of South Haven; 7 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren, and a brother Ralph (Stub) Johnson. He was preceded in death by a son, Brad in 1996 and a sister, Anna Mae Woolner in 2003.

Previous Events

Visitation

MAR 3. 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM (ET)

Bloomington Chapel
203 East Spring Street
Bloomington, MI

Service

MAR 4. 11:00 AM (ET)

Bloomington Chapel
203 East Spring Street
Bloomington, MI

Tribute Wall

“ dear uncle robert we all miss you very much and we thank you very much for every thing that you had done for the famliy and i know you are in a better place now that you are gone please watch over all of us i am married now and i have two beautiful girls now i wish we could of brought to you so you can see them and give my wife the blessing that we needed##imported-begin##eric longjohnn##imported-end##

March 03, 2005 at 02:12 PM