“ We never got to know you very well because of all the miles in between our families, but from what I heard you were "one special guy." You were good to our Christy and that was what counted in our book, she always seemed to be so happy. You will be truly missed by your wife and children and everyone else that was close to you. I will always have a fond memory of you in my heart, from last Summer when I saw you sitting in your lawn chair, shorts on and a cold one by your feet shooting those crazy squirrels that were trying to get into the house with that BB gun. We shall all miss you deeply. Our prayers and thoughts are with you Christy.##imported-begin##Varne & Bonnie Rueff##imported-end##

“ Rodney:
I never told you that when you came into our daughter's life that we were more than a bit skeptical of where this relationship was going. Because you were older than she was with 2 teen age boys, I was worried. I should have just trusted God and knew that this was a lasting one! You gave all of us such fun memories...camping, fishing, and holidays all spent together. You and Christy were truly a match made in heaven and sent to earth! We will all miss you, but because of your relationship, we have meshed into one bigger family. Our lives have been changed forever, and we have been touched and blessed because of you! It will be difficult without your smiles, and your funny stories but the memories will be with us always. We love ya! Mama Dee & Pete##imported-begin##Dee & Pete Birmingham##imported-end##
