“ Uncle Don, Jennifer, Jeanine...

Please know that my thoughts & prayers have been with you this past week. My heart breaks that I have lost my Auntie Rosie, but I think we all know that she is in a better place now and her suffering has ended. I know it's been a rough couple of years for you, as well. It broke my heart that I could not be there for the service. With the unpredictable weather & travel conditions, it just was not feasible. If there was a way, I would have been there for you, and to celebrate Auntie Rosie's life.

I want every one to know what a wonderful aunt she was to me and my brothers & sisters. She was everything an aunt should be - caring, warm, loving, protective, generous, fun, a confidant. She looked after us from the time we were born and into our adult life. Somehow, I believe she still will be smiling down on us.

Take care, & take care of each other.

With love, Amy###imported-begin##Amy & Ed Larson##imported-end##

“ Jen, Montana, Jared,
I just wanted to tell you all how deeply sorry that I am for your loss. You will be going through some difficult times right now. Just know that through your stages of grief, if you need anything at all I will be here to listen to you. If you need anything at all please don't hesitate to ask. Your family is very important to me and to my family.
