“ Dear Barb and Nancy and your families:

I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. "Aunt Rosemary" was always a bright spot when our families got together, and she will be missed. Please accept my thoughts and prayers. Sorry I cannot join you on Saturday, but I'm really happy that Rochelle is participating in the service.

*Love,
Perry*

“ Rosemary was a very beautiful and supportive sister to have as a young child. When I was little she took care of me a lot and I always called her Jzah Jzah, probably because I could not pronounce her name! Later on she was a role model for my going to graduate school as she went to Loyola University one year in Chicago, on a FULL scholarship! She wrote me an enthusiastic letter of congratulations after my first chapbook collection of poems was published out of Seattle. And I always knew right up to her last few months on this earth that if I called her about a political or social issue, I would have very knowledgeable and supportive data provided. Our cousin Betty having now lived in the San Diego area for almost 50 years still talks with great fondness about the time Rosemary lived one summer with Betty and her sister Tess and our Uncle Richard while working at an office on the Lower East Side of Manhattan; and always Betty speaks of the happy summers she and Tess spent either in South Haven with the Andrus grandparents or on the Klein family farm while enjoying the kinship most especially of Rosemary as they were contemporaries. And of course Rosemary ended up raising two great daughters and gave much help with seeing her two grandchildren grow into two smart and attractive adults. And, I will miss my sister. - Pat Andrus

“ When I was 3 and 4 yrs. and Rosemary was 6 and 7, we would play school, she being the teacher and me the student. She taught me how to read and so when I started school, thanks to her, I could read quite well. She was a dear sister, as are all my sisters, and I will miss her. Kathy Selivanoff, Seattle, WA

“ When our family lived on my grandparents fruit farm near the Evergreen school house we had a quarter horse named Star. My sister Rosemary became an excellent horseback rider. She had no fear of the horse and was always in control of the situation. She truly loved to ride. Peggy Andrus Carretta
