“ To my extended Osborn family, I am heartbroken to learn of Sandy's passing, and wish I could be there for you all, at this very, very sad time. I am fondly remembering our growing up years, and the little sister that always wasn't far behind Robin & I. Please know that she is finally pain free, and with God, waiting for us all, when our turn comes. Love to all of you

“ To the Osborn family, We are sorry for this time of sorrow you are going through but we know there will be a glad reunion day when we all reach heaven! What a comfort it is when we know our loved ones have a personal relationship with our Lord and Savior. We pray that you are wrapped in our Father's arms with comfort, peace and sweet, sweet memories. Unfortunately, we will not be able to attend the services as we are away on vacation. Our prayers go out for you all. God bless, Mary Helms-Long, Mark & Karen Hinkle

I am deeply sadden by the loss of Sandra. She was a bright light. I take comfort in knowing she has a Heavenly Father that loves her and I am sure her bright light is continuing to shine.

Although I had just gotten reacquainted with Sandy, I have very lovely memories of her; her smile, that beautiful long black hair, her strength and the love she had for her family. I'm blessed to have met her again even for a little while. Pick a lovely spot in heaven and I'll meet you there in God's time. I'll see you when I get there. Luv your cousin Teresa
