“ Joyce, I didn't learn about Shane's passing until Sunday night and I have been just so sorry for you. I remember keeping your boys when you made your trips to Chicago to see Gerald. Shane was such an adorable little boy. I'm sure he grew into a handsome man. I have had to tell myself (more times than I care to count), that some things in this life are not meant to be understood. Shane's 'trials' are now over and he is at peace. I do believe he and Elvis are playing guitar! I am here if you need me.....stay strong and know you have our deepest sympathy.
