“ I miss you Shannon, not a day goes by that I don't think of you and it's been 4 years since you left us all. I talk to you every night and I sing in hopes that you are singing too. Your voice was so beautiful and restful. I can feel your presence when I sing because like when we were in school and we would sing together my heart fills with joy each and every time. You and I were like two pea's in a pod and I am so blessed I got to know you and be your best friend. I will never forget you and I hope when I get there we can sing our heavenly hearts out together once more!

Love you,
Jenny (Martin) Hicks....

“ I called her Shanny, I called her a pest. I called her a troublemaker. I called her a baby. I called her loud, I called her lazy. She was our niece, we had to pick on her. When she would visit, she was so pleased we thought she had such pretty hair. Then we would say we didn't like her tennis shoes and she would go nuts. We wouldn't cut her any slack. She would beg me and Maureen to not be so critical. We told her to run with the Houston aunts, you had to be tough. She would call me a lot on her cell. The girl was a talker. Grandma Conley and I would laugh about how you couldn't get in a word to even say goodbye. She loved Drew. She loved her kids. She loved all of us and openly said so. She loved to sing and was really good at it. But she was "Daddy's girl". She knew Ron would always be there no matter what and she called him all the time, day and night, no matter what state she lived in. Ron, Shannon's good spirit will always be there in your heart. What is funny is that I call my niece Madison "Shanny" because she has always looked just like Shannon. It is so unreal. So Shannon will continue to live on no matter where we all end up. Drew, we were so glad to meet you 2 years ago and see the kids. Jay was home on leave and got to meet you all too. That meant a lot to Shannon. Shannon came to visit this year and take care of Grandma for a week. It was good to have her here even though the plumbing all backed up and she had to scrub all the house to get rid of the backed up sewage! She was so funny about visiting in the "swamp" and having to clean up doo-doo all week! She also tried to tell grandma's doctors at the hospital what she perceived as the real diagnosis and they'd better be taking good care of her. The girl was not shy at all! Drew, we are all here for you in whatever way you choose. Ron & Donna, what can we say. Your hearts are broken. Keep the good memories alive for the kids. It's what will keep you going. I will end this with one of my favorite sayings. It is actually from the Beatles song...and when the night is cloudy...there is still a light that shines on me....shine on til tomorrow...Let it Be..Let it Be.... Shannon, your light will always be shining in our family. Love, Aunt Sherlene, Uncle Jim, Cousins Emily & Jay##imported-begin##Sherlene Conley Wells##imported-end##

“ Ron, Donna, Drew, and Children,
We are so sorry for your loss and wish we could be there to comfort you. There are no words to help take away the pain you're feeling, just remember that we're thinking of you and our prayers are with you all. A special life has passed from our sight... but never from our hearts. If there's ever anything we can do for any of you, please don't hesitate to call, as that's what family is for. We love you all, Kathy, Steve , & A.J. (Shannon's aunt, uncle , & cousin in Texas).##imported-begin##Kathy Conley Vernon##imported-end##

“ Drew, Morgan, Conner, Christian, Ron and Donna,

All of our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. We wish we could be there with you. Shannon was a very special part of all of our lives. I am so glad that she did come down in Feb. and visit with us and help take care of Mom. I just wish we could of seen her and the kids more. Drew Please if you all ever need anything or if the kids need anything please remember they will always have an extended family in Texas that is willing to help with anything that you or they might need. Ron and Donna I know you will do the best you can for the kids and please remember that you had a very special daugther who touched many loves. Her memory will always be with us.

*All our love,
