“ Shayne was such a loving caring man. We will miss him greatly. A funny story for the family. Once on a trip to Chicago we had gone to Moody Bible Church for service and were taking the bus back to our hotel All of a sudden the bus driver slammed on the brakes. Shayne and I were both holding onto a pole in the bus and I felt myself sliding down the pole and Shayne fell right on top of me. our friend Kathy hodgman said, All of a sudden I saw Lynne Disappear. As a true gentleman Shayne helped me up and asked me if I was alright. We have so many wonderful memories of Shayne. God Bless him and may he rest in peace. Dan and Lynne Farmer

“ All I keep hearing in my head is "Mean Uncle Shayne". He would always tell us that was his name when we were little, and then he would usually follow that up with "growling" at us, or flipping us upside down....something to get us riled up. Uncle Shayne will be greatly missed, and was taken from us far too soon.
