“ Dear Family,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Death is truly an enemy that we hate to face. At this difficult time, though, we can gain some comfort knowing what the Bible promises at 1 Corinthians 15:26, "this last enemy death is to be brought to nothing."

Although we suffer seemingly unbearable pain, grief, and feelings of helplessness that only the loss of a loved one can bring, we can gain some relief from the Bible's promise at Isaiah 26:19, "your dead ones will live. They will rise up." I pray that you will find a measure of comfort. My condolences to all of you.##imported-begin##Pamela Strong##imported-end##
