“ When Spencer was a toddler he hated baths. The first time I heard his blood curdling screams that sent chills down my spine. I raced to the bathroom and his mom, Tina just looked at me and stated that she just hurries it up.

“ What a privilege to have known this precious young man. Spencer could light up a room with one of his smiles and could melt a heart with one of his special hugs. He was ALWAYS a joy to have around when he came to VBS or other church activities, at Calvary of South Haven. Although we moved and have not seen Spencer for a few years.....we STILL remember him FONDLY. May ALL of his loved ones & friends find comfort in God.....abd in each other's memories of Spencer. He made an impact on many lives.....for good. May we take his shinning example and continue his legacy! ~James & Teddie Helms

“ To Spencer's family,

Spencer was a good friend and we would keep in touch sporadically following our time together in high school. I will always remember him as a kind soul who always had a good joke, sunny disposition, and the time to trade stories. I am incredibly sorry for your loss.

Rest peacefully, Spencer. You are missed.
