“ Stella was a very dear sister-in-Christ who prayed for me and my family as she lay in her hospital bed, not long before her passing. She was a very loving lady who will always have a special place in my heart. I will miss her, greatly, for now, but I thank the Lord that she is in my future and not in my past. Her family will be in my prayers, and I pray that any of her loved ones that she prayed for, through the years, will see her again in Heaven, as well.

“ Dear, dear Stella - she lovingly watched over my mother and comforted my dad (Frank and Dorothea Baker) years ago in Bethany Nursing Home. Stella was one wonderful lady. She has always had a special place in my heart and I will never forget her. She and my mother are now rejoicing together in the presence of Jesus.
