

Steve Singleton III

June 12, 1968 - December 10, 2008

Steve Singleton, III, age 40, of Kalamazoo, passed away Wednesday, Dec. 10, 2008, at Borgess Hospital following a short illness. Steve was born June 12, 1968 in Kalamazoo, attended Gobles High School, was currently a cook at Applebee's and formerly at several other area restaurants. He was a member of the Church of Christ and Spirit. He enjoyed games, such as D & D, and loved trivia and the Beatles. Surviving are his wife, Angela; his mother, Marian Lesterhouse; his father, Steve (Pat) Singleton, Jr.; a sister, Kelli (George) Hopper; a brother, Scott (Jaime Peterson). He was preceded in death by two brothers, Rick and Nick Sabo. Following his wishes, cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held Monday, Dec. 15, 2 PM at the Calvary Baptist Church, Gobles. The family suggests memorials to the family to help with expenses. The family is being served by the GOBLES CHAPEL, D. L. Miller Funeral Home.

“ To my bravest nephew that's dealt though a lot in life and always even in bad times had a smile on your face knowing you will get through this. Now our lord Jesus has taken you home to be your loved ones that he's taken and I know they were there with open arms. I love you so very much and missed a lot of years living in Arizona but our hearts were always close. Aunt Darlene was there with your first boo boo that grandma never forgave us for and that's ok it's all about love.
I love you Steve, say hi to grandma, grandpa, nick, pat, Rick and Stephen your cousin.
Love Aunt Darlene###imported-begin###Aunt Darlene###imported-end##
