“ Susie, I can't find the right words, but there are many thoughts of you and your babies in my mind. They have been left behind without their Mama, and no child should ever have to experience this at their ages. I know they love you so much, just as you love them also. There are many that are hurting deeply, as we all try to accept and endure this; till we meet each other again. Everyone will be re-united in a much better place. Then the biggest, happiest celebration will begin and never end. I can see your joy already; hugging, embracing, smiling, laughing lots. We will help each other with love, strength & comfort from Our Father in Heaven and guidance thru his son, our soon to be King; Jesus Christ. I love you and rest peacefully till then. Till Next Time.....
