“ When I think about the last class we took together a few weeks ago. We sat beside each other and the first thing she said was "do you know who I still have?" We busted out laughing (like school girls) and I said "Noooo, you still don't have Duc-urtle do you?" She laughed and said "Yes!" Duc-urtle was a pink shirt I had bought with a character on it, in the early 80's. We both loved it. Its head looked like a duck and its body look like a turtle. So that is how we came up with its name. I said to her "why did I give you that shirt?" and her reply was "I don't know you must of liked me!" We chuckled and agreed, Then she said " Why? Do you want him back now?" And my reply was "No, I still like you!" :)

There is a small handful of us on the Emergency Response Team at Perrigo's, that date back to when Perrigo offered its first CPR classes. We were taught by the Red Cross. When we would start talking about those "good old days" the room would fill with laughter. 30+ yrs of friendship full of fun stories!

Sue will be so missed! I know all these tears will be replaced with great memories, with time. Until then my heart goes out to you all.###imported-begin##Peggy Thompson###imported-end##

“ Sue was a very dear friend for many years. We worked together and through those years we shared many happy times, heart aches, thoughts and dreams. Sue had a special gift that she shared with all her co-workers and friends. This sad news broke my heart but yet I know that Sue is in a better place.
My heart goes out to all of her family. I realize her earthly body has left us but I know that we will all have that special angel watching over us.
God bless each and every one of you. I will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Cindy Lee##imported-end##

“ We have been fortunate to know Sue and Steve for many, many years. Sue was a beautiful person. She listened more than she spoke, but when she spoke, she was wise. Her heart seemed pure; she never said a bad thing about thing or anybody. I was always so happy to see her, and now that she is gone, we are hurting deeply at the thought that we won't see her again. I wish I had told her how highly I regarded her, how I wished to be more like her and how much I treasured our friendship. She always brought a ray of sunshine when she and Steve pulled up on the bikes. I'll never forget the sight of her in cut-off shorts and high rubber boots working in her garden. Or feeding the ducks; she always laughed at me for being scared of the ducks. I'm so sorry...our whole family will miss you, Sue. We all loved you and that love will live on.##imported-begin##Carson and Kirk Leftwich##imported-end##

“ Sue,

I really enjoyed working with you at the township elections. I learned a lot about you thru our talks and it seemed like every other person that came to vote knew you in some way or another. I will miss your smile and laugh. We had some great long days together. We all will surely miss you.

“ Sue was not only my coworker, she was a real friend to me. She listened when days were not going well. And I will always remember how she would laugh when something funny was said. How excited she got when she was sharing stories. Her funny faces she would make and then act like she didn't do anything. I will miss her. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves a memory no one can steal. I will remember her always.##imported-begin##Jenny Shafer##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers will be with your family. I worked with Sue at Perrigo. I will always remember how she would just pop in our office to either put some smelly lotion on (she loved the Victoria Secret silky lotion!), take a quick breather, or joke around with us. I will never forget when she just had to show us this straw trick, and she had all of us girls in our office trying to do this straw trick, it was so funny!!! Sue will definitely be missed.##imported-begin##Maggie Bronson##imported-end##

“ We are going to miss Sue here at Perrigo. She would pop in our and always had a funny look on her face or humorous words about something going on here at work. I will also associate her with Harley Davidson as she talked about her friends often and her different bikes.
