“ Sylvia was a true friend and Sister in the Lord. She and John have prayed for my family & kids for years. Sylvia readily took me into her home when I was in town visiting my Mother who had fallen sick in 2020. The time we spent together was such a blessing to me. I will miss her dearly. I look forward to seeing her in heaven and glorifying our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. ”

“ John my deepest sympathy at the loss of your wife. Sylvia touched more lives than she knew this side of heaven. My dad (Warren Thompson) was very fond of her and although I did not know her well, his admiration of her told me of her strong, caring and faithful character. Indeed, she lives on in the hearts and memories of people unbeknownst this side of heaven. May that give you comfort. ”
