“ I grew up on North Lake and went to school with her four boys. I ate many meals at Jean's house, she was such a good cook. I will miss all the fish fry meals. I'll miss visiting my dad & Jean in Florida. I know she's in heaven with Jesus and in no pain. Our prayers go out to all the family. Phil & Pat Raleigh

“ So sorry for your loss. Jean was a tough woman who loved her boys. My favorite memory of her was tinting Don's car windows I thought it was so cool a girl knew that much about cars. Heaven gained a hero. Sincerely Toni Tranchita

“ Jean was always so nice to me when I would see her on North Lake in the 70's. I loved walking into her house and hearing her play her organ, and then teasing her about her playing abilities. 😊 Blessings and peace to her family.

“ I remember going with Mom second time around shopping. Especially in Florida. Browsing and finding treasures, stopping for smoothie drinks, silly jokes with Randy, and walking the beach on Anna Maria Island. Fun, simple, unforgettable.

“ 2017 Was the year for my grandmother and I. We had gotten very close. That year in early May we got matching rose tattoos "keep in mind she has never liked tattoos." That year was also the year that i got married. One week before the wedding, just her and I took a week trip to Branson, MO. That trip I will never forget.

“ Just two years ago my mom and I went up to the cabin to go salmon fishing. I took a day off and she and DIXIE (my dog) came along to cheer me on. We found a nice spot on the river and I started fishing before no time I had one on. I don't remember if I got the fish in, but before I was done for the day I had landed 3 and had many others on. The great part was I spent the day with her one on one and had a great time. A memory I will always have.

*I was visiting Jean in Florida, 2009 when she begged me to spend the winter with her and Pat during the first round of cancer (well this was very expensive to me) I had enjoyed the sun, many activities in Tropic Isle so I bought a home and became a “snow bird”. $$
Enjoying shuffle board, bingo, patio parties, casinos, canasta, lunches, family get together and of course BINGO!!! Many memories were made during this time, hoping she's taking all these memories with her newest journey. RIP*
