“ After my dad died - when I was 6 - I was a very needy kid... maybe a little pesty. Not having a dad around at Lake Mill when all my cousins had there's was a bit difficult. However, "Uncle Bud" was there and no matter how many times he demanded "Uncle Bud, stake to the silver ladder!!" he always - ALWAYS - indulged me. I never knew a single instance when Uncle Tom didn't have a smile on his face and a genuine Irish sparkle in his eyes. I can look back now and see that he had a love of life, a love of his family and a love of Lake Mill.... and I want to thank him for always taking me to the silver ladder.
