“ Tim was my uncle. I only saw him once a year on Christmas, but he made Christmases fun. Every year we went up to Michigan, my Uncle Tim would spend all day with my family, then he would leave at night and come back first thing in the morning. Even though my Uncle Tim and I weren't technically related, he was like my big brother. When I was around him, his happiness was contagious. We shared so many laughs together, and even though he's gone, he will never be forgotten. He will be with us in everything we do and he'll watch over us and keep us safe. He is alive in our memories. I love you Uncle Tim. I'll see you soon.

“ Dad used to pick me up from headstart and "airplane" me all the way out to the car.. even put me through the window of his driver side door!

I read in a previous comment the many many stories and memories we could share about this wonderful man I proudly am able to call my father, but it could last for days! I love you Butchie and forever in my heart you remain! I love you soo much! See ya soon big guy <3

“ How do you pick just one memory to share when there are so many? Tim was a great guy. He would give you the shirt off of his back. He loved his family, friends and pets. Just they all loved him. Please accept our sympathies as we are all feeling the loss. Tom & Candy Gray & Family
