“ I remember when Vicki first came home from the hospital. I say that infant grow into a beautiful girl and woman. Vicki took after Rose and Em who are two warmest people any one can know. The pressures of career and family caused us to drift apart for all but wedding and memorials. The few time we meet I saw Vicki as a wonderful woman. Our prayers go out to Rose and family for the heart breaking past year and hope you can put aside the pain and remember the good time celebrating Vicki's life withe knowledge she is at peace and without pain.

*Deepest Sympathy,
Dan and Gay*

“ Rose, Shannon, Brian, Samantha and family: I will always be honored to call Vicki my dear friend. She was so full of life. I will keep the memories we shared always; the stories she told, her laughter and yes, her somewhat salty language (which made me laugh). You all will be in my prayers and as sad as I am that Vicki will no longer be here, I do thank God that she is now at peace. Vickie will always have a special place in my heart.
