“ You always came over and played with the kids when we lived next door to you and you and Cory were always hanging out in the car smoking or around a bonfire. We had our differences at times but you were loved and will be missed. ❤️ RIP Uncle Marc

“ He liked spending time with his REAL FAMILY. People who understood him and didn't abandon him. He was funny and caring and always willing to help. The most genuinely good person. And he lived his family, even though THEY treated him so poorly. He deserved so much more form this life than he was given. I'll forever be thankful to Marc for helping Austin start his tree service helping us more then anyone else could possibly help. Only person who genuinely loved and cared about us. My heart is broken. But I know he's in heaven with his sister the only 2 good people in this world, the only amazing beautiful souls in my family. Your memory sure won't be forgotten Marc I'll be sure of it.
