As Don's sister, I have been fortunate to have him as my brother. Even when we lived far apart we always kept in touch. We had a special bond in that we had each other when we travelled as a family when our Dad was in the military. Don had a special knack for making people smile and laugh. I remember as a small child he stuttered, and couldn't pronounce words as they were supposed to be, like for mother, he said bubba, and for me he said bibi. One day he said, "Bubba how daddy gonna get that 'tick' off the twailer". Mom asked if he threw sticks on the trailer and he said, "no' mam, I frowed a tick up to the good lord and he frowed it back down on the twailer." I'm sure it made it difficult for Mom to chastise him. He had a love for animals especially cats. The one who wandered into our yard in Maryland was immediately presented a saucer of milk. With his nose to the ground looking at the kitten drink he said, "raise up little kitty and get your breath." His love, sense of humor and kindness to all will be missed. Especially for Jim, JR., Greg, his 3 grandsons, 2 granddaughters, and 2 great granddaughters. Now I have lost both my brothers. I have enlisted Donna to be my sister since she's the only one I ever had. my thoughts and love go out to all who loved Don as we have. Jennifer

“As a young girl, I remember my Uncle Don full of love, laughter and kindness. He had the best hugs and, I loved hearing his laugh. Even though we lived far apart he held a special place in my heart. I hope we find comfort and healing from our memories. As I share in their grief, my love and prayers go out to my Aunt Donna, Junior, Jim and family. ~DawnMarie~
